TOLEDO'S INDUSTRIAL PIONEERS WALKING TOUR AT WOODLAWN MAY 21st

TOLEDO, OH. On Sunday, May 21st, 2017 from 1:00 to 2:30 Woodlawn will hold the semi-annual Tree and Tombstone Walking Tour. The theme Toledo's Industrial Pioneers, stories behind visionaries. The spring colors of Woodlawn's Certified Arboretum will provide seasonal display and highlights along the tour.

By the turn of the century, Woodlawn had become the cemetery of choice for Toledo's civic, professional, and industrial leaders. The elaborate monuments and private family mausoleums erected by these leaders are truly stunning and, as the original designers planned, augment the natural beauty of the space. A historical backdrop for our guide, Robert Lamlein to tell the story about Toledo's Industrial Pioneers, the historical significance as well as the continued to impact our community. Along the tour guides will highlight the spectacular spring colors on display in the certified arboretum representing more than 100 varieties of stately, nature trees on display.

Historic Woodlawn Cemetery and Arboretum is a National Historic Site. With more than 160 acres of scenic and rolling hills, Woodlawn, a private, non-profit cemetery, has over 40 acres of burial space available. A public mausoleum, crematory, cremation niches as well as traditional burial plots are open to people of all spiritual beliefs and ethnicities. Public programs, tours and field trips continue the rural cemetery origin mission to share the beauty, natural beauty, and architectural significance of Woodlawn.
